

Prime Time Ministry Trip to Ventura, September 16, 2010 8:30 am $4.00 gas

Ventura Harbor Village and Marina

Sights we will visit include:

★ Mission San Buenaventura - This beautiful mission is the last built by Padre Junipero Serra, the force behind many of the missions here in California. It is reputed to be his favorite.

★ A.J. Comstock Museum (antique fire equipment).

★ Bank of Books, (antique bookstore).

★ Olivas Adobe - An wonderful example of Spanish architecture depicts how the wealthy and powerful lived. This adobe is over 150 years old and is featured on the National Register of Historic Places.

★ The Channel Islands Visitor's Center - A wonderful place to experience the natural history and beauty of the Channel Islands. There is a bookstore and observatory with great views of the harbor.

★ The Ventura Harbor Village and Marina. This is a wonderful community filled with shops, boats, restaurants, and miles of white sand beaches. Bring money for lunch.
